THANKS TO MY FAMILY

I've been blessed with a beautiful, amazingly talented, and well-grounded wife. Lorri, thank you for your patience and support while I pursued my entrepreneurial dreams over the past 35+ years we have spent together. Thanks for giving me the freedom to move from one firm to another, set up my own firm, transfer it to another firm, and reestablish Zell Law as my ultimate focus, with you by my side as my partner and COO. Without you, your brilliance, and your guidance, I could not be half as successful as I have been and hope to be. And your input and comments on this book have proven invaluable!

To my children: Arianna, Laynie, Ethan, and Jared

Arianna, you and Andrew have shown me what it means to pursue your dreams, with integrity, perseverance, and tenacity. You two are amazing individuals and make a formidable team. Please don't move too far away; I will miss you too much.

Laynie, your journey from the depths to the heights and beyond is awe-inspiring. You have overcome more obstacles in a short period of time than most people do in a lifetime. And now, as the only female cantor in the US military and the first cantor in the US Navy, I salute you.

Ethan, you are one of the brightest and most intriguing people I know. Not only are you succeeding in pursuing a PhD in mathematics at one of the nation's best educational institutions, but you amaze me every day with your depth of knowledge in every topic imaginable. You really should think about becoming a lawyer or maybe president of the United States someday.

Finally, Jared, my youngest and brilliant son, you inspire me every day. You have overcome the greatest obstacles known to humankind. And your life is just beginning. May you continue to grow and learn and succeed in all that you do and desire to do.

My family is the reason I do what I do. I am so proud of them. Each of them inspires me to work hard and with a passion that is unbridled. Thank you all for making my life complete.
